The land bank scheme would furnish another long list of jobs for politicians.

President Wilson says now that he might fight if his dog were kil ed, but not as long as he is only kicked around.

Let Missourians soak old Demon Rum at the coming election by adopting the state wide prohibition amendment.

It has already cost the United States $100,000,000 to maintain an army on the Mexican border. And he kept us out of war.

The breweries and the Demo cratic leaders in Missouri seem to be working together as har moniously as usual this year.

It would be interesting were the railroads to accept the new 5hour law literally, and compel their trainmen to quit when they had worked eight bours.

Col. Gardner will vote against himself if he votes as he talks. He has lately said that he does not desire the vote of the immensely rich. The Colonel has a million or two safely tucked

None of our state officials have responded to Judge Lamm's challenge to come forward and show just what the state owes to the State University and other institutions. Why? Because they afraid to speak the trnth.

Large flocks of wild geese dis turbed the peace and serenity of Jefferson City one night last week. The noise large flocks of Republican voters are making is also keeping a good many people there awake these nights.

Out of seventy five Democratic editors of Missouri called upon for a political pow wow at Jefferson City last Friday, only sixteen responded. Great enthusiasm prevails in the Missouri Democracy this year, especially among the Democratic editors.

We want to say a good word for the Republican county ticket. The candidates on that ticket are bonorable citizens and competent men. They were nominated by popular vote and should have the full support of the party. Let every Republican vote for the nominees of his party.

Col. Gardner says that if he is elected governor he will see to it that Missouri is given a business leaks. This looms good deal administration is not a business one and that there are leaks to be stopped. Let us try a change of party and see how that works.

The Master Bakers' Associa tion of Chicago is appealing to President Wilson to check the soaring prices of wheat. That won't do any good, for Mr. Wil son will check nothing that would for Congress and no Republican tend to check the fighting officiency of the Allies, let it affect his ballot for Hensley. Our Demogratic exchanges evidently place a low estimate upon the intelligence of their readers, for they do not even lie consist ently in their efforts to mislead them. For instance, last week's Ironton Register had a cartoon depicting Mr. Hughes wearing the Kaiser's helmet, while in the editorial column it was asserted that were Hughes president he would go to war with Germany.
